Post Oak Cleanings

Jesse Bowers had a span of mules killed by a Rock Island train last week.

There will be a big play at Salem church Saturday night, the 18th. God's people have abandoned Old Salem it seems, but the other fellow hasn't. The prayer of the writer is that the spirit of God will reign supreme.

Albro Scholle has broken the record making ties. He made and hauled twelve ties to Stover, and had 1 cull and 11 ring-outs.

The school meeting at Post Oak was a hot number. There were eight patrons present, and after a tie for school director the third time, the final count resulted in the election of Geo. Weaver, Charley Gehrs and Ben Huffman, all good men. May the school prosper under the'r management.

Proctor Pickups

We have had considerable cold weather the past week—warmer now.

Everybody is planting garden now. Little Frank Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, has the whooping cough, not seriously however.

Our Sunday school is in fine progress, having large attendance. Our Supt. Mr. Charles Lefever does his duty and all of us like him.

Donald, little son of Bert Padgett, the Proctor merchant, who has been sick for some time, is reported much better.

There is going to be church services here Sunday and Sunday night. A brother from the prairie will preach.

Arthur Ensminger will probably be able to come home in a few days as his wound is healing nicely.

The dance at Dan Bowen's Saturday night was well attended and every one had a fine time.

Mrs. Killis Kauffman, who has been having considerable trouble with her eyes, we are glad to hear, is better now.

Jno. J. Gladdish lost his barn and contents by fire one day last week while he and his men were away at work. Cause of fire unknown.

Rev. Dan Driver preached here last Sunday night to an attentive audience.

Mrs. Mollie Earnest went to Versailles Monday for a few days visit with her mother, Mrs. Roe.

Glensted News

T. C. Newkirk visited his sister, Mrs. Samuel B. Thompson, of Clarksburg, last week.

Quite a number of our young people attended Easter services at the Catholic church in Tipton last Sunday.

Prof. Thruston Hawks has been employed to teach the Walnut Grove school again this coming winter. Girls, Thruston is not only a winner but a stayer. See?

Bridges and Marriot last week sold 100 head of cattle to Jno. T. and Joe R. Marriot of Versailles.

Everett Robertson made a combined business and pleasure trip to Fortuna last week, and will only say, "The half has never yet been told."

The lecture given by C. W. Cartwright, for the League Sunday evening was well attended and the offering amounted to more than seven dollars.

Willie Fowler was seen in town last Sunday and had a motto that read, "Gone But Not Forgotten." He says it's not always good looks but winning ways that carries a man through this world.

Dave Morris says he can't see the reason why he wouldn't be considered a student of Glensted school; yet it's easy for us to see.

Rev. Will Driver and wife will hold a series of meetings at Glensted beginning Monday evening, April 20th.

The social given at Uncle Tom Newkirk's last Thursday night in honor of his friend Mr. Cartwright, was well attended and all had a jolly time.

The members of Glensted M. E. church are making preparations to install a new gas or acetylene light plant which is badly needed, as they have been in the dark for a long while.
